

Employee Benefits

Health Insurance

All full-time employees are enrolled in the company group health insurance plan from their date of joining, with details described in the Medical Insurance policy.

Retirement Savings

The company contributes 6% of base salary to the employee's retirement savings account, matching employee contributions up to an additional 4%.

Wellness Program

Employees have access to an annual wellness allowance of USD 300 for gym memberships, fitness classes, or mental health services.

Employee Assistance Program

A confidential Employee Assistance Program (EAP) offers counseling and support services to employees and their immediate family members at no cost.

Other Perks

Additional perks include an annual learning and development stipend of USD 500 and discounted meals at office cafeterias.