

Code of Conduct

Ethical Standards

All employees are expected to act with honesty and integrity in all business dealings, and to avoid conflicts of interest between personal and company interests.

Anti-Harassment

Acme Corp maintains a zero-tolerance policy toward harassment or discrimination of any kind. Violations should be reported to HR or the Ethics Committee as described in the HR Policy's grievance redressal process.

Gifts and Entertainment

Employees may not accept gifts from vendors or clients valued above USD 50 without disclosure to their manager and Compliance.

Confidentiality

Employees must not disclose confidential company information, as classified under the IT Security Policy, to any external party without authorization.

Reporting Violations

Violations of this Code of Conduct can be reported confidentially through the Ethics Hotline, and will be investigated by the Ethics Committee.
